The Maine Trapshooting Assn.
dedicates the 131st. Maine State Championships to the memory of Dennis DeVaux.

We greatly appreciate the support Dennis provided many of us as well as his contribution, on a state and national level, to ATA trapshooting.
Dennis's passing represents a monumental loss to our sport and sadly the loss of a friend and wonderful man.
RIP Dennis, you are missed by so many. You sure made a difference !!

Aaron Pollak, Dennis, Phil Wright

Dennis at the Grand American in Vandalia ..

Please join us at the Scarborough Fish and Game Assn. in Scarborough, Maine for the 131st Maine State Trapshooting Championships held on July 14th to July 17th.

Our Maine State Championships are dedicated this year to the memory of Dennis DeVaux, who was struck by a vehicle and tragically killed this winter while on his morning walk. We gratefully remember this friend and great ambassador to ATA Trapshooting.

Come and enjoy Maine. The greater Portland area with its famous Old Port section of the city's seaport and its many fine shops, restaurants and hotel accommodations provides a nice enhancement to four days of tournament trapshooting.

We are anxious and committed to once again provide shooters good targets, good food and good fun. If you decide to join us:
Be Safe, Have Fun, Shoot Well!!

Sincerely,
Maine State Shoot Tournament Directors:

Darrin Kirkpatrick, Scarborough Trap Committee
